2011 WRUW SPRING PROGRAM GUIDE

FM 91.1
WRUW
CLEVELAND, OHIO
MORE MUSIC. FEWER HITS.

Thank you for emerging from your winter hibernation to pick up a copy of this Scene and for taking a peek inside to 2011's WRUW Spring Program Guide!

We presume that while you've been snuggled away in whatever warmth you made for yourself in the last few months, you've been able to tune in and find out that we've still been broadcasting 24/7 through snow, sleet, hail, ice, and slush.

WRUW's winter season, though, began with tragic news. Stella Salamone, longtime host of such programs as "The Wrath of the Thrash Queen," "State of Decay," and with co-host and husband Mike "AP Magee" Salamone, "Domestic Decay," passed away at the age of 44. Stella, who had been a part of WRUW for nearly 25 years, never failed to electrify the airwaves with her love of metal and punk, her passion for politics, and certainly behind the scenes, her true geniality. We kindly thank everyone who attended and performed at her benefit concert at the Beachland Ballroom on November 6. Stella's absence is doubtlessly felt, but life goes on, and so will "Domestic Decay," when AP Magee returns to the airwaves this summer.

The rest of the station continues to move forward as well, still served to bringing you the greatest mix of whatever is on the forefront of any genre, as well as older obscurities mined from the depths of our library! We have a wealth of exciting new shows, including but not limited to "Sweet and Lowdown," "Superhet," and "Psykick Dancehall," and our veterans, from Cuzin Jimmie Wilson to Franklin and Charles, from Wade to Neal Dare Waves, from Roger Weist to Carl, are still going stronger than ever. We'd like to especially extend a congratulatory handshake to Dr. Bill, who is celebrating an astounding 40 years since the first episode of Sunday night's jazz program "Bird Calls" aired!

WRUW is also the place for more than music; "Democracy Now!" continues to air five times a week along with original public affairs programming like "Gaywaves" and "It's About Justice." The "WRUW Alumni Show," highlighting the past programming lives of many who have had a lasting effect on the station, continues to air on the first Friday of every month in the first hour of "Down By the Cuyahoga." And you can always tune to the station to satisfy your weekly dose of sports and food talk, on "Defend Cleveland" and "Maximum Consumption," respectively.

With Telethon coming up, it's going to be an exciting season for the station, and we welcome you to join us in the fervor! Set your dial to 91.1-FM and enjoy; whether you're listening for the 60s-flashback of "The Occasional Detour," the reggae and dancehall of "Night of the Living Dread," or the thrash of "Metal Meltdown," we have something for you. If you haven't found it yet, we hope you take the time to do so, and if you have, we thank you tremendously for your continuous support!

Let there be rock and everything else,
Adam Spektor

From the Telethon desk:

April 11-17 is the most important week of 2011 here at WRUW.

Why, you ask?

Because that 's the week of our annual Telethon, the one time each year that we ask for your financial support.

Didn't I give you money last year?

Yes, and THANK YOU for your support!! Broadcasting new and diverse music 24 hours a day on 91.1 FM and wruw.org requires a lot of volunteer effort, and a lot of cash.

You need more?

Yep. CWRU contributes less than 50% of our annual budget for new music, technical improvements and our live concert, and that difference is made up by donors like you. Past contributions from thousands of listeners over the years have enabled us to increase our signal to 15,000 watts, webcast and host downloads on wruw.org. This year your donations will help us continue to digitize our music libarary, which allows us to continue expanding our music library even though we're at the limit of our physical space in the WRUW studios. No money goes to salaries or basic stuff like keeping the lights on.

What's in it for me?

The money you donate to WRUW is returned to you as better, clearer music and public affairs programming - the reason why you listen to WRUW. You also get the warm glow of satisfaction that comes from supporting the best source of alternative radio in Cleveland. More materially, we'll thank you with your choice of CDs or WRUW logo items: t-shirts, sweats, hats, or drinking ware. And all contributions are tax-deductible.

How does this work again?

You call 216-368-2208 during the week of April 11-17 to make a pledge, or donate on-line at wruw.org during the weeks before and after the Telethon.

OK, you got me. I'm in again this year!

Thanks! Tell your friends!
